

How far would you be willing to bend the law in order to help others in desperate need?

"Who was I - this little person - to question it?"
- John Wayne

How comfortable would you be risking a good grade if you found out one of your group members cheated?

When should you speak up for others?

THE COURAGE AND CONSCIENCE OF ORDINARY PEOPLE IN EXTRAORDINARY TIMES

Paul Callaghan: Stripped citizenship to allow himself to join the fight against the Nazis and save lives.

Leif: Whether questioned, pressured or put in jeopardy to make sure they were not allowing themselves to be simply another in a long line.

Alexander: Felt wrong the time of strangers who were being targeted because of their ethnicity.

Travis: Without being a volunteer speaker, he would debate about when it is appropriate to help military members with their families.

I will take a stand for others by respecting the dignity of all individuals within the Penn State Community.

Take a stand by supporting the Prejudice Free Zone.

Prejudice FREE Zone

- Report acts of bias or hate.
- Support your fellow students.
- Speak up.
- Watch your words and actions.

Beautiful Souls

...the courage and conscience of ordinary people in extraordinary times...

New Student Orientation

...the courage and conscience of ordinary people in extraordinary times...

Check Back for Author Eyal Press' Campus Visit Itinerary

September 9th - September 12th

COULD YOU BE ONE OF THEM???